

Dr. Anindya Kishore Maiti was born in the year of 1973. He completed his B.Pharm (1995) from Sambalpur University, M.Pharm (2007) and Ph.D (Pharmacy) (2014) from Jadavpur University, Kolkata. In post graduation, his specialization was Pharmaceutical engineering and project was on Transdermal drug delivery system. In Ph.D his research work was on novel drug delivery system and research title was “Design, In vitro and In vivo Evaluation of Diclofenac potassium Controlled Drug Delivery

System.” He has many works on Pharmaceutical Sciences and Technology and contributed six research publications published in reputed International journals. He presented his work in one Internal and two National seminars. He is a life member of Indian Pharmaceutical Association,

Dr. Maiti has more than 22 years of teaching and 2 years of industrial experiences. In February- 1999 he joined to Technical Education Department, Govt. of West Bengal as Jr-Lecturer and from October-2007 as Lecturer in Pharmacy. He served different Polytechnics like Contai Polytechnic, Cooch behar Polytechnic. He is teaching Pharmaceutics, Pharmaceutical Chemistry, and Pharmacognosy like subjects of Pharmacy. Besides this, he acted as Head of the Department (Pharmacy), Scholarship in Charge, Student affairs in Charge etc. Dr. Maiti also attended more than hundred Short term training programs and visited reputed organizations like IIT-Guwahati, NIT-Durgapur, NITTTR-Kolkata, Dibrugarh University etc.